

Part 8 Constitutional review panel

1 Appointment

Members of the constitutional review panel are appointed by the management committee.

2 Australian Greens constitutional review panel

The annual general meeting must elect a member of the constitutional review panel as the ACT delegate to the Australian Greens constitutional review panel.

3 Duties

The constitutional review panel:

- must ensure compatibility between the ACT constitution and that of the Australian Greens;
- must evaluate constitutional matters regarding the operation of the ACT Greens;
- must formulate proposed amendments to the constitution and the bylaws, to facilitate good governance of the ACT Greens;
- must prepare amendment proposals for constitutional ballots whenever needed;
- must not incur any expenses;
- will communicate by email and, occasionally, by face-to-face meetings;
- must aim to make all decisions in consensus.
