About this book

This book is written by The Australian Greens.

This book is about our plan to make an accessible Australia.

Accessible means information and places are easy for disabled people to use.

An accessible Australia means disabled people have the right to

- jobs

- schools

- other services.

We want disabled people to be able to join in and feel included in the community.

Our plan has 4 areas

1 The National Disability Insurance Scheme or NDIS.

2 Accessible places

3 Inclusive schools and jobs

4 The disability community

Area 1 - The NDIS

We want the NDIS to be better for disabled people.

The NDIS helps disabled people under 65 get

- care
- supports.

To make the NDIS better we will

- pay for the NDIS
- train NDIS staff to do a good job

- make the NDIS website easy to use.

Area 2 - Accessible places

We want disabled people to have better access to

- houses

- buildings

- transport

- jobs

- schools

- services.

We plan to

- make buildings and parks more accessible

- build 500 thousand more homes that are all accessible

- build train stations with accessible lifts and ramps

- make information assessable.

For example

- easy to read documents

- websites that read information out loud to people who have vision problems.

Area 3 - Inclusive schools and jobs

We want disabled people to have better access to

- schools

- jobs.

To make schools more accessible we will

- help schools to include disabled students

- help teachers learn about disability.

To make jobs more accessible we will give more government jobs to disabled people.

Area 4 - The disability community

We want to help the disability community

- speak up for their rights
- get justice.

Justice means the law helps disabled people get fair treatment.

We know disabled people do not always get fair treatment.

We will learn about unfair treatment of disabled people.

We will stop unfair treatment of disabled people.

We want to help disabled people speak up

We will pay for more advocacy for disabled people.

Advocacy means support for disabled people to

- understand information

- say what they want

- make decisions.
